

Storming the Sound 2025: Session Agenda

9:00AM - 10:00AM KEYNOTE ABE LLYOD (WWU) IN PHILLIP TARO THEATER

	“L”124	“L”126	“L”227	“L”311	“L”324	“L”330	Cardinal Center “C” Multipurpose Room
Session 1 10:30 - 11:40	“Heron in the Classroom” Stacy Dahl & Oceanna Boulanger Skagit Land Trust	“Community Art Project” Annie England, Chandler Colahan Padilla Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve Will be painting - needs tables NOTE: Paper on Desks	“Engaging Youth in Environmental Leadership” Jess Newley, Kaia Olson Friends of the San Juans	“Igniting Curiosity: An Introduction to OpenSciEd for Elementary Classrooms” Bethany Yuly Skyline Elementary school	“Salmon Spotters – Connecting the Community to Salmon in their Backyard” Avery Garritano Nooksack Salmon Enhancement Association	Transition to a Clean Energy Future” Betty Carteret Skagit Chapter - Citizens Climate Lobby	NOTE: MEET FOR FIRST PART IN FORD (“F”) # 102 “Exploring Indigenous Knowledge Through the 13 Moons Curriculum and Planetarium Experiences Kusemaat - Shirley Williams, Kwastlmut - Sadie Olsen, Jorell Jefferson, Cameron Kolk Whiteswan Environmental

LUNCH CARDINAL CENTER	“L”124	“L”126	“L”227	“L”311	“L”324	“L”330	Cardinal Center “C” Multipurpose Room
Session 2 1:00 - 2:10	“Skagit River Salmon: Why are they important, what challenges do they face, and what are we doing to help?” Holli Watne Skagit Watershed Council	“Exploring Nature with Picture Books” Natasha Zimmers Sky Valley Education Center	“Poetry Writing for Socio-Emotional Development” Hannah Andersen Whidbey Island Conservation District	“Supporting Emerging Environmental Leaders Through Internships” Sarah Brown Nooksack Salmon Enhancement Association	“Garden for Wildlife” Guinevere Unterbrink National Wildlife Federation	“The Nuts & Bolts of Creating Strong School / Community Partnerships for Outdoor Learning” Susie Richards Kristin Codda - 2nd grade teacher, Andrea Mitchell 6th-8th ALE teacher and Ann Linnea	“Building Professional Learning Pathways and Coherence for Environmental and Outdoor Educators” Elizabeth Schmitz OSPI
Session 3 2:25 - 3:35	“Teaching Climate Science and Inspiring Hope in the Outdoors” Nathan Zabel, NSEA, Emily Hie, Common Threads Farm, Grace Maxa, NSEA, Chris Peñuelas, Wild Whatcom Nooksack Salmon Enhancement Association (NSEA)	“The Watershed Game” Alexander Krejci & David Paynter Federal Way High School Needs large tables to play a game with 6-12 participants	“Skagit Audubon Education and Outreach” Jeff Osmundson Skagit Audubon	“Learning Beyond Boundaries: Solutions from Place” Suneeta Eisenberg, Michael Toomes - Green Builder Whatcom Waves	“Diving into Conservation with Scuba Jess” Jessica Alexanderson Recycling Society	“STEM Education through Art, Music, and Indigenous Frameworks” Thayne Yazzie Energy Pyramid	“STREAMing into Action: Engaging Students in Environmental Issues through Hands-On Activities” Middle and High School students at Sky Valley Education Center

CLOSING SPEAKER PHILLIP TARO THEATER: 3:45PM - 4:30PM
STORMING THE SOUND 2025 at Skagit Valley College

IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND MAP (MAP ON NEXT PAGE):

Please Park in C3 lot for the day.

We will have morning check-in and tables in the Cardinal Center “C” on the map.

Morning coffee tea and lunch will be in the cafeteria of the Cardinal Center (“C”).

The morning Introduction with Keynote Speaker is in the Phillip Taro Theater, (“PT”) on the map at 9:00AM

Lunch break and Poster Session will be 11:40AM to 1:10PM with catered lunch in the Cardinal Center (“C”) -

Presentations will be in the Phillip Taro Theater (“PT”), the Cardinal Center’s multipurpose room (“C”) , as well as in Lewis Hall (“L”), and Ford Hall, “F” on the map. Tables all Day in Cardinal Center (“C)

Closing at Phillip Taro Theater 4:00PM

NOTE: We ask all attendees to bring their own beverage containers to reduce waste. Also, feel free to bring your own plate and utensils.

